Council for Older Adults Announces the Hiring of New Associate Director

The Council for Older Adults announces the hiring of Kimberly Clewell as the organizations new Associate Director of Operations. Clewell recently assumed this senior leadership position at the Council and is responsible for all financial management of the nonprofit organization, as well as other duties.

For the past 14 years, Kim has been employed by United Church Homes in Marion, Ohio, a senior healthcare and housing provider. First employed as a staff accountant and promoted to senior accountant in 2002, Kim specialized in financial statement preparation, budgeting, Medicare/Medicaid cost reporting, accounts receivable, accounts payable and reimbursement. Originally from upstate New York, Kim earned a Bachelor of Science in Accounting from the State University of New York Institute of Technology in 1995.

“We are very pleased to welcome Kim to the organization, said Bob Horrocks, Executive Director of the Council. “She has a wonderful mix of education, depth of experience and leadership skills that will help our organization continue to be an outstanding service provider and steward of organizational resources”, he said.

Kim resides in Marion County with her husband Jeff and two children. In addition she has two grown children and three grandchildren. Kim has enjoyed volunteering with the St. Mary’s / Marion Catholic Festivals, the FOP Auxiliary, PTA and Football Parents.

Clewell replaces Victor Williams who recently retired from the Council.

The Council for Older Adults of Delaware County is a non-profit local organization responsible for planning, coordinating and developing local services for older adults, their families and caregivers in Delaware County. The Council is the home of SENIOR CHOICES, the local one stop center for information, assistance and in-home services. The Senior Choices program is supported in part through the local senior services levy.
